

CHRIS-CRAFT STINGERS

Welcome to the June, 2012 Newsletter!

Welcome to the June 2012 newsletter. As you can see from the picture above, there have been some changes to the newsletter (and website) as well. Thanks to a generous chriscraftstingers.com patron, I've redesigned the logo and changed the font on the name. I believe these changes bring a more modern look to the website and newsletter.

Updates to the website continue – the number of documented Stingers is getting close to the 500 mark – there are currently 494 Stingers in the registry! When I first started this website, I didn't realize there were so many Stingers still around. I continue to document all of the Stingers I can find. I'd like to apologize in advance to anybody I contact multiple times regarding info on Stingers – at nearly 500 Stingers, it's hard to keep details of all of them at hand.

It's the middle of the year, and hope everyone has their Stingers out on the water and enjoying them. If you happen to see a Stinger, please feel free to get pictures and send them my way. I'm always looking for new Stingers to add to the registry.

Han.

Value of a Stinger

A question I get asked frequently from visitors to the website is "how much is a Stinger worth?" The question is truly a hard one to answer. As the Stingers are around 25 years old, it really depends on the condition of the boat itself, how much the buyer wants the boat, current economic conditions, etc. There are services that provide a "Blue Book" price for a boat, but in my experience these services really don't give an accurate price as they don't take into account condition.

While pondering just how to value a Stinger, I decided to go through the list of documented boats and try to get an idea of asking prices. When a boat gets entered into the registry, if the boat is being sold, I will record the asking price. The asking price is not the final price the boat sold at, but at least by averaging out the asking price, I might be able to get an upper limit on what the value of a Stinger is.

With the information in the registry, I've compiled the following table and graph of average asking prices by model:

Asking Price by Model

Model	Avg Asking Price
230	$2,850
202	$6,438
222	$7,213
260	$10,887
314	$13,086
311	$14,956
312	$19,945
313	$24,270
375	$25,178
Fittipaldi	$29,531
390	$32,836
415	$44,629
385	$62,400

As you can see from the table above not, too many surprises. Average asking price generally rises with length of the boat. The only models, such as the 230s and 385s, value there boats at. I don't have discrepancy is with the 230, 385 there are only 2-3 asking prices any numbers on actual selling and the 312 Fittipaldis models. used in the average. I did not break prices, but I'd have to think they Since I only have a small number of down the average prices by would be lower than the asking prices for the 230s and 385, I have condition or year – the average price. to assume the discrepancy is due to asking prices covers all boats for a sampling size. The asking price of particular model regardless of year That's it for this month - see you the Fittipaldis being higher also and condition. Lastly, if there were next month! makes sense as it was a special multiple prices listed for a boat, I Han edition of the 312. took the lower price.

There are some caveats to the The average asking price gives a numbers. As mentioned, for some sense of how much current owners

1987 Chris Craft Stinger 42ft. Mercruiser twin 496 engines, Myco trailer, deck awning, head, 3 batteries and fiberglass hull. We purchased the boat as a hull then totally restored it about 10 years ago. About 6 years ago we installed two new 496 magnum merc cruiser engines with currently about 200 miles. We rewired the entire boat about 3 years ago. This season we replaced the manifolds So the boat has been maintained and is in good working order I would characterize the finishes of the boat as "worn around the edges" but as hinges and snaps corrode we replace them The boat has a working head & shower Galley/ microwave/ref/sink TV stereo/cd/sat system/ ipod dock deck compass GPS

This is a 1988 Chris Craft stinger. It has the original OMC 4.6L V6. It has about 820hrs. It is in good condition, it had a tune up at the end of the season to tighten up some belts, etc. These pictures are old, but the boat is currently winterized, so I can't get any current ones. You would not believe the attention you get for this boat. In addition to being bright red, it is a Chris Craft, these boats are instant classics and extremely well built. The Stinger line is famous because the original pilot of Miami Vice featured the 39' version of this boat. I have to sell because I'm looking at business school, and I won't have time for the toys. I have a great arrangement for moorage in lake Washington as well, in a marina, on a boat lift, for $225/month. We can talk about transferring the lease. This price comes with the boat trailer and accessories, lines, fenders, extra aluminum prop, etc. If you would like to see comparable sale prices or find out more about the history of these boats, check out www.chrisraftstingers.com this boat is on the registry there at: Seattle 202 Gallery

Asking Price: $21,000

39 ft. Chris Craft Stinger project boat. This boat has twin 480 ci big blocks that have less than 10 hours. This has speed master 3 out drives with Borg Warner transmissions, hydraulic steering, and K Plane trim tabs. The interior has been recently taken apart, but I have all the parts ready to be re-upholstered. The previous owner spent $25,000 per motor and the drives are worth about $10,000 a piece. I am giving this boat away at a sacrifice of $21,000 OBO due to the fact that I don't have the time to put it back together. This boat also comes with a tri-axel trailer that is in very good condition.

PRICE REDUCED!!! Great condition and well maintained. Was converted to a V-8 350 w/ high rise edelbrock intake and quadrajet carb as are most of these you will find have been. Vessel has 420 hrs on the clock, 120 of those hours with the V-8. Alpha one mercruiser outdrive that I believe is the original. Has original trailer which does need a little work. Recently replaced the alternator, battery, belts, and rebuilt the carb. Trailer has new tires plus new spare. Boat has new cockpit cover and mooring cover. This boat is reasonably rare as there was limited production of these. This craft will only accomodate three passengers, please look closely at the interior pic. It is a center console and seating is three abreast. This boat was designed to be an entry level offshore speed boat. It is fast, loud, and fun but it isnt for everyone. If you've never heard of one of these before, I highly recommend you google it and know what you are getting into.

This is a 1987 Chris Craft 312 Stinger. It has approx 190 hours on it. It is 31' long, has twin Mercruiser 454 Magnums, runs great. The cuddy cabins interior is in good condition. The tops of the seat backs in the outside cockpit area do show some wear and the back seat and engine cover cushions also have some wear and cracking. The hull is in good condition it does have a few scuffs and scratches. It has a triple axle trailer that could use painting but is mechanically sound. I put new brakes on the trailer last year. This boat is in current use and is mechanically sound. I went through both drives last year replacing the bellows, gimbal bearings, shift boots and water pumps. The boat is ready to go. The only reason I am selling is I just don't have time to use it anymore.
