

CHRIS-CRAFT STINGERS

Welcome to the October, 2013 Newsletter!

Welcome to the October newsletter.

Within the past couple of months I've added some new items to the parts page including an aluminum radar arch, a bolster seat, a swim platform and bow rails. If you haven't been to the parts page in a while, head on over!

This past month, seven boats were added to the registry - including two Excalibur 310s. One of the Excalibur 310s has a hull number which indicates that it was the 3rd Excalibur 310 model built by Chris-Craft. The Excalibur 310 would later become the Scorpion 311 and Stinger 311 models. You can view pictures of this boat here: <http://www.chriscraftstingers.com/gallerypage.php?gallerydir=Unknown%20Excalibur%20310>.

It's coming to the end of the boating season up here in the mid-west, and boats are being readied for the coming winter. Typically traffic for the website slows down around this time too. Work will continue on the website throughout the season.

As a reminder, if you know of any Stingers, or recognize any Stingers on the website, I would like to hear from you. Some of these boats have some great stories, and I'd like to do everything I can to preserve that history.

Until next month,
Han.

Number of Stingers Built

One of the purposes for creating the website was to learn more about the history of Chris-Craft during the 1980s. By documenting the Stingers built, I could get an idea of the company itself.

Chris-Craft was the largest recreational boat builder in the US in the middle decades of the 20th century. But, by the late 1970s, it no longer held that title. In 1981, Chris-Craft Industries sold their boat building business to Murray Industries. By 1982, Murray Chris-Craft had started building the Stingers.

The Stingers represented the top-of-the line performance boat for Chris-Craft. Some of the larger models cost over $100,000 new. When I started documenting the Stingers, my assumption was that there might be just a few hundred Stingers still left, and that less than a thousand Stingers had actually been built. But there are now 638 Stingers in the registry - and I believe the final number may be between 700-800 Stingers. And, by analyzing the hull numbers that I have, I estimate that at least 2,814 Stingers were built by Chris-Craft. That would be approximately 402/year or 33/month. Those numbers contradicted my assumptions - either I had been calculating numbers wrong or Chris-Craft really did build that many Stingers. I wasn't sure which one it was.

While I was trying to figure out what was going on, I found an article in the Chicago Tribune from December, 1988. The article stated the Chris-Craft had built 7,500 boats in 1987! That's quite a few boats, and after reading the article I can see that the numbers of Stingers built per year that I calculated represented less than 6% of Chris-Craft's annual production. Chris-Craft making at least 2,814 Stingers now seems sensible.

So, while Chris-Craft was no longer the industry's largest manufacturer by the 1980s, it still had a sizable operation. In 1986 it had sales of $210M with over a thousand employees at plants across the country. But by 1988, Murray Chris-Craft had filed for bankruptcy protection, and with the the production of Stingers was ended.

1987 Chris Craft Stinger 42ft. Mercruiser twin 496 engines, Myco trailer, deck awning, head, 3 batteries and fiberglass hull. We rewired the entire boat about 3 years ago. This season we replaced the manifolds So the boat has been maintained and is in good working order I would characterize the finishes of the boat as "worn around the edges" but as hinges and snaps corrode we replace them The boat has a working head & shower Galley/ microwave/ref/sink TV stereo/cd/sat system/ ipod dock deck compass GPS

Model: 1988 202
Location: Rochester, NY
Asking Price: $8,000

I have a super rare 88' chris craft stinger 202 for sale. It has 165 hours on the hull. This boat is like brand new. I literally just finished it. This is the coolest fiberglass speed boat that Chris Craft ever made and was made for the Miami Vice tv series. They were built in very limited quantities and there are only a handful of these left. There is a website dedicated to them, I know of no other boats that have a cult following. I built this one to be better than it was originally. It is an attention grabber. I get compliments on it wherever I am and have had numerous offers on it even before I restored it. I'm selling it because I'm getting married and need the money. I just put well over $7500 into it this summer alone and have well over 12K into it total. I had planned on using it but sadly it needs to go. Weddings are insanely expensive and I'm finding out the hard way. I replaced the motor and outdrive. It has an OMC 4.3L v-6 and an OMC cobra outdrive. Next, I gutted the boat completely and installed new marine ply, fiberglass, carpet, custom built seats and engine cover and had everything professionally upholstered. I installed a new GT steering wheel, a Sony marine cd/mp3/satellite radio which sounds awesome, a new bilge pump, new fuel lines, new aluminum swivel/slider/adjustable height seat posts and new Tracker style folding seats. The interior work cost over $4K alone but was well worth it. It came out awesome. I had a 4bbl. Rochester carb installed which brings the HP up to 205 and will do over 60MPH. I had the pin striping re-done on the boat and matching Shorelandr trailer. I replaced the tires, lights, and started to strip and repaint the entire trailer. It also has a new deep cycle battery. There are 2 swim platforms molded into the stern that have teak foot boards and they were also refinished and look great. I also just purchased a new trailerable cover for it. I even just filled the tank with ethanol free 93 octane fuel. I'm probably forgetting a lot. If you're interested you must include the words eighty-eight chris craft to get a response due to spammers. I know it's the wrong time of the year to sell a boat and I could get more for it this spring which is why I priced it where it is. It is well worth the money. Chris craft builds the very best boats around and this one is better than new.
